WANT YOUR REFUND FASTER?

- Be sure to attach your W-2 forms.
- Use your correct social security number.
- Double-check your math.
- Sign your return.
- File electronically, if you qualify. (See below.)

Electronic filing: If you are eligible to file an Idaho Form 40 or Form 43, you may use electronic filing. Participating tax preparers can file your Idaho income tax return electronically along with your federal return. You can even have your refund deposited directly into your bank account. Electronically-filed refunds are generally paid two or three weeks after your return is filed. That's about half the time it takes to get your refund after filing a paper return.

To file your Idaho return electronically, you must:

- File your federal return electronically, and
- Use an Idaho-accepted preparer for electronic filing.

For more information, contact your tax preparer or any Idaho State Tax Commission office.

GENERAL INFORMATION

INFORMATION AND FORMS

If you need information or assistance, call or visit the Idaho State Tax Commission office nearest you.

Forms are available at Tax Commission offices or may be ordered by calling (208) 334-7789. In addition, most Idaho libraries have a copy of "Idaho Reproducible Forms." This binder contains Idaho tax forms for individuals and businesses. You may file photocopies of these tax forms with the Tax Commission.

If you use a photocopy of a state form, the weight and size of the paper must be comparable to the official form. Your copy must be legible. Defective copies will not be accepted.

FILING REQUIREMENTS

Full-year Resident

If you are a full-year resident, you are required to file an Idaho income tax return if you are required to file a federal income tax return.

If you are a dependent claimed on someone else's return, use the special federal rules to determine your filing requirement.

Part-year Resident

If you are a part-year resident, you are required to file an Idaho income tax return if your gross income from all sources while a resident and gross income from Idaho sources while a nonresident total more than $2,500.

Nonresident

If you are a nonresident, you are required to file an Idaho income tax return if your gross income from Idaho sources was more than $2,500.

FILING FOR REFUND OF WITHHELD AMOUNT

If you are not required to file an Idaho return, no tax is due even if the calculation shows taxable income. If you are filing only to receive a refund of amounts withheld, you do not pay the $10 permanent building fund tax or receive the grocery credit. Write "NRF" (Not Required to File) on the lines for "Tax from tables or rate schedule" and "Permanent building fund tax."

GROSS INCOME

The federal definition of gross income determines whether you meet the Idaho filing requirement. Gross income is measured before subtracting allowable deductions. Gross income includes:

- All income from wages, salaries, tips, interest and dividends in the form of money, property, and services that is not exempt from tax.
- Self-employment income before expenses
- Farm income before expenses
- Rental income before expenses

- Shareholders and partners include their share of the gross income from the S corporation and partnership
- Unemployment compensation
- Certain scholarship and fellowship grants

Tax-exempt income, such as certain social security payments, is not included in gross income. Scholarships received by degree candidates that are used for tuition, fees, supplies, books, and equipment required for particular courses are not included in gross income.

FILING STATUS

Your Idaho filing status must be the same as the filing status used on your federal return. If you file a joint federal return, you must also file a joint Idaho return.

RESIDENT

A resident is any individual who has a home in Idaho for the entire tax year and spends more than 270 days in Idaho during the tax year or is domiciled in Idaho. Domicile is the place where you have your true, fixed, permanent home. You can have several residences or dwelling places, but you can have only one domicile. To change your domicile, you must abandon your old domicile with the intention of acquiring a new domicile and actually move to your new domicile.

Although you are domiciled in Idaho, you will not be considered an Idaho resident for income tax purposes if you are absent from the state at least 445 days during a 15-month period. The period begins when you leave the state.

During this period you may not:

- be present in Idaho for more than 60 days in any calendar year after the first 15-month period, or
- maintain a permanent home in Idaho where your spouse or minor children are present for more than 60 days during the calendar year, or
- claim Idaho as your federal tax home, or
- be employed on the staff of a U.S. Senator or Representative, or
- hold an elective or appointive office of the U.S. Government other than the armed forces or career appointees in U.S. Foreign Service.

The period ends once you return to Idaho if you remain or reside in Idaho for more than 60 days.

RESIDENT WORKING OUTSIDE OF IDAHO

If you are a resident who works out of state and you do not meet the exception, you must report all your income to Idaho on Form 40 or 40EZ. If you paid income taxes to another state and you claim a credit for taxes paid to that other state, you must file Form 40, Form 39 and a copy of the other state's return.

GENERAL INFORMATION

PART-YEAR RESIDENT

You are a part-year resident if you are not a resident and you changed your domicile either to or from Idaho during the tax year, or you resided in Idaho more than one day during the tax year. If you have Idaho gross income that meets the filing requirements, you must file Form 43.

A resident alien who has resided in Idaho part of the year will be treated as an Idaho part-year resident for Idaho income tax purposes.

NONRESIDENT

You are a nonresident if you were not domiciled or did not live in Idaho during any part of the tax year. If your gross income from Idaho sources meets the filing requirements, you must file Form 43.

An alien who has Idaho income but has not resided in Idaho for any part of the year will be treated as an Idaho nonresident for Idaho income tax purposes.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

If you joined the armed forces while a resident of Idaho, Idaho remains your state of permanent residence unless you change it. If you are an Idaho resident on full-time active duty stationed outside Idaho for all or a portion of the year, you must use Form 43. Full-time active duty must be continuous and uninterrupted for at least 120 consecutive days. Only the portion of your military wages while stationed in Idaho is subject to Idaho tax.

If you are an Idaho resident on full-time active duty and were stationed in Idaho for the entire year, all your military wages are subject to Idaho tax. You may file a Form 40 or Form 40EZ unless your spouse is a nonresident or part-year resident.

National Guard or Reserve drill pay and annual training pay is taxable if earned in Idaho or earned by an Idaho resident in another state. A National Guard member or Reservist who is temporarily stationed out of state while on active duty for at least 120 consecutive days may deduct non-Idaho earnings by filing Form 43. See instructions for Part II, Form 39.

If you are a nonresident on full-time active duty and were stationed in Idaho for all or a portion of the year, you are not subject to Idaho tax on military pay. However, if you have enough other income from an Idaho source to meet the filing requirements, you must file Form 43.

NATIVE AMERICANS

If you are an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe and live on a reservation, all income received from working on reservations is exempt from Idaho taxation.

If you are required to file a federal income tax return you must file an Idaho return. For specific instructions, see Form 39.

ROUNDING AMOUNTS

The amounts on your return may be rounded to the whole dollar. An amount less than 50 cents may be reduced to the whole dollar. Amounts of 50 cents or more are increased to the next whole dollar.

DECEDENT'S TAX RETURN

If a taxpayer dies before filing his return, the return must be filed by the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpayer's property.

If your spouse died in 1996 and you did not remarry in 1996, you can file a joint return. You can also file a joint return if your spouse died in 1997 before filing a 1996 return. A joint return should show your spouse's 1996 income before death and your income for all of 1996. Write "FILING AS SURVIVING SPOUSE" on the line where the decedent would have signed the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he must also sign the return.

If a refund is due, attach federal Form 1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer. Form 1310 is not required when a surviving spouse files a joint return with the decedent or a personal representative files for the decedent.

COMMUNITY PROPERTY

Because Idaho is a community property state, each resident spouse has a one-half interest in the earnings of the other resident spouse during the portion of the year they were married. If married for only a part of the year, the community income includes ONLY the income earned during the time the couple was married. When filing separate returns, the community income, withholding and deductions of both resident spouses must be divided equally between husband and wife. Idaho law affects your federal return in the same manner. For more details, obtain federal Publication 555, Federal Tax Information on Community Property. If you were a resident of Idaho for only a portion of the year, Idaho law applies to that portion of the year you were a resident. Income is identified as community or separate income based on the laws of the state in which the recipient is a resident.

Community property laws do not apply when the spouses have lived apart for the entire year and no part of the income earned by one spouse has been transferred to the other spouse.

Income, withholding and deductions received or paid after divorce are separate property and must be reported on the return of the person to whom it applies.

If you divorced during 1996 or are filing separately from your spouse, attach a schedule showing how community property income and deductions were divided.

TAX YEAR AND ACCOUNTING PERIOD

The tax year and accounting method used on your Idaho return must match those used on your federal return.

WHEN TO FILE

You must file your return and pay any income taxes due:

- On or before April 15, 1997, for the calendar year 1996, or
- On or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year, if you file on a fiscal year basis.

TAX PREPARER CONTACT BOX

This box applies only if you paid a tax preparer to complete your return. If you check the box, you are authorizing the Tax Commission to contact your preparer to resolve any questions related to your return.

This authorization is valid for up to 120 days from the date the Tax Commission receives the return. If you want the Tax Commission to contact you rather than your preparer, leave the box blank.

SIGNATURES

You must sign your return. Your spouse also must sign if you file a joint return. If your return is prepared by another person, he must enter his name, address, and social security number or employer identification number. If a taxpayer is deceased or cannot sign his return, an authorized person may sign the return indicating his status or relationship. Write "FILING AS SURVIVING SPOUSE" or "unable to sign" in the signature space. If a taxpayer signs with an "X," his mark must be witnessed.

SEIZED REFUNDS

If your child support payments are delinquent, the Department of Health and Welfare may seize all or part of your income tax refund. If you have debts owing the Department of Employment, all or part of your refund may be seized by that agency to pay your debt. If either of these agencies has seized your refund, you should be notified of this fact by the agency. Questions regarding seized refunds should be directed to the agency that seized the refund.

GENERAL INFORMATION

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING

If you cannot file your return by the due date, you must file for an extension of time on Form 51 on or before the due date of your return. The amount of tax withheld and other payments you have made must be at least 80% of the estimated tax due or 100% of the total tax reported last year. When you file Form 51, you must pay this amount. Even though an extension gives you additional time in which to file, the tax is due on the original due date of the return. When you file your income tax return the extension period expires and any remaining tax due must be paid. You must pay interest on any tax due. If the request for extension of time does not have sufficient payment attached, a 5% penalty will apply to any tax due. The minimum penalty is $10.

The federal extension form is not valid for Idaho.

AMENDED RETURNS

If you discover an error on your return after it has been filed, do not file the same form again. Use a Form 40X, Amended Idaho Individual Income Tax Return, to make the necessary corrections. If you amend your federal return, an amended Idaho tax return must be filed within 60 days. Failure to file within 60 days may result in a 5% penalty.

AUDITED RETURNS

An audit is a review of a return to make sure it was prepared according to tax law. You will be contacted if your return is to be audited. The audit will be made by an auditor from the Idaho State Tax Commission. The auditor will ask to see your records and compare them with your return. You may present your records yourself or have someone represent you or come with you. Any change to your return will be explained. Question anything you don't understand.

FEDERAL AUDIT

If your federal taxable income or tax credits change because of a federal audit, you must send written notice to the Idaho State Tax Commission within 60 days of the final federal determination. You must include copies of all schedules supplied by the Internal Revenue Service. If you owe additional Idaho tax and do not send written notice within 60 days, a 5% negligence penalty will be imposed. If the final federal determination results in an Idaho refund and the statute of limitations is closed, you have one year from the date of the determination to file for the refund.

KEEPING TAX RECORDS

You are required by law to keep records that will enable you to prepare a complete and accurate income tax return. Although the law does not require any special form of records, you must retain all receipts, canceled checks, and other evidence to prove amounts claimed as deductions. Keep all supporting records for income or deductions until the statute of limitations for the return expires. Usually this is three years from the due date or the date the return was filed. In property transactions, the basis of new or replacement property may be determined by the basis of the old property. Keep these records as long as they are needed to determine the basis of the original or replacement property.

PAYMENTS

Make your check or money order payable to the Idaho State Tax Commission and attach it to the tax return.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS

Tax payments of $100,000 or more must be paid by electronic funds transfer. If you are making an electronic funds transfer for the first time, contact Taxpayer Services at (208) 334-7660 for further information.

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalties may be imposed on the tax due as follows:

- 5% for negligence or disregard of rules
- 5% per month or fraction of a month to a maximum of 25% for failure to pay the tax due
- 50% for filing a false or fraudulent return
- 10% for substantial understatement of tax

The minimum penalty is $10.

Interest applies on delinquent tax from the due date of the return until the tax is paid at the rate of 9% per year (rate effective 1-1-97 to 12-31-97).

LINE 42 ADOPTION EXPENSES

Column A: If you adopt a child, you may deduct the expenses incurred in the adoption. You may claim legal and medical expenses incurred up to a maximum of $3,000 per adoption. Travel expenses do not qualify. If the expenses are incurred in two or more years, deduct the costs in the year paid until the $3,000 limit has been met. The expenses related to an unsuccessful attempt to adopt are not deductible. If expenses were claimed in a year prior to such a determination, file an amended return to add back any deduction claimed for the unsuccessful attempt.

LINE 43 CONTRIBUTIONS TO MEDICAL SAVINGS ACCOUNT

Columns A and B: You may deduct up to $2,000 ($4,000 if married) for contributions to a medical savings account. A medical savings account is generally established with a bank, savings and loan, or credit union. The account is established to pay eligible medical expenses of the account holder and the account holder's dependents. Attach a copy of Form MSA-1 you received from your depository.

Any interest earned on the account is included on line 44. Complete and attach Form 39, Part I, Other Subtractions.

If you withdraw funds from a medical savings account and do not use the funds to pay eligible medical expenses, the withdrawal is subject to Idaho tax. Report this amount as an Other Addition, line 34. Eligible medical expenses include medical, vision and dental care, medical insurance premiums and long-term care expenses.

If you make a withdrawal that is subject to tax and you are under age 59 1/2, the withdrawal is subject to penalty. The penalty is 10% of the amount withdrawn. Report the penalty on line 83.

LINE 44 OTHER SUBTRACTIONS

Column A: Enter total "Other Subtractions" from Form 39, Part II, Column A.

Column B: Enter total "Other Subtractions" from Form 39, Part II, Column B.

LINE 47a AGE 65 OR OLDER

If you are 65 or older, check the box for "Yourself." If you are filing a joint return and your spouse is 65 or older, check the box for "Spouse." Age is determined as of December 31. However, if your 65th birthday was on January 1, 1997, you may consider yourself 65 on December 31, 1996. The boxes you check must match your federal return.

LINE 47b BLIND

The box for "Yourself" must be checked if the taxpayer is blind. If you are filing a joint return and your spouse is blind, check the box for "Spouse." Blindness is determined as of December 31. The boxes you check must match your federal return.

LINE 47c CLAIMED DEPENDENT

If you can be claimed as a dependent on your parent's or someone else's return, check this box. You may itemize deductions or use the standard deduction. Complete the worksheet on page 15 to determine your standard deduction.

LINES 48-51 ITEMIZED OR STANDARD DEDUCTIONS

You may use either your federal itemized deductions or standard deduction, whichever benefits you more. (For exceptions, see YOU MUST ITEMIZE.)

Your itemized deduction is the same as the figure you used on your federal Form 1040, but Idaho requires that all state or local income taxes be subtracted from your itemized amount before you use that figure to reduce your income. (This is all state or local income taxes on your Schedule A, not just Idaho's.) Because of this addback, it may be more beneficial to itemize for federal purposes but use the standard amount for Idaho.

If line 50 is more than line 51, you should use your itemized deductions on line 50. If line 51 is more than line 50, you should use your standard deduction on line 51.

CLAIMED DEPENDENTS. If someone else can claim you as a dependent, complete the worksheet.

YOU MUST ITEMIZE if you are married, filing a separate return (filing status 3) and your spouse itemizes. You must itemize if you had dual status as a nonresident alien for part of 1996 and during the rest of the year you were a resident alien or a U.S. citizen. However, you do not have to itemize if you file a joint return with your spouse who was a U.S. citizen or resident at the end of 1996 and you and your spouse agree to be taxed on your combined worldwide income.

FEDERAL LIMITATIONS ON ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS. Some of your itemized deductions may be phased out if your federal adjusted gross income is more than $117,950 ($58,975 if you are married filing separately). Since this figure is the same as the limit on your federal itemized deductions, use the amount computed on the federal Itemized Deductions Worksheet and reported on your federal return.

Since state income taxes are affected by the limitation, your state income tax addback (line 49) must be reduced if your itemized deductions are limited. Adjust your state income tax addback as follows:

1. State income tax reported on federal
Schedule A
2. Itemized deductions affected by the limitation
(line 3 of federal Itemized Deductions Worksheet)
3. Divide line 1 by line 2%

FORM 43

4. Enter the amount from line 9 of the federal Itemized Deductions Worksheet
5. Multiply line 3 by line 4.
6. Subtract line 5 from line 1. Enter this amount on line 49.

- b. If 65 or older or blind, multiply $1,000 ($800 if married filing a joint or separate return, or qualifying widow(er) with dependent child) by the number of boxes checked on lines 47a and b
- c. Add lines 5a and 5b. Enter the total here and on line 51
