

BEFORE THE TAX COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF IDAHO

In the Matter of the Protest of)

[REDACTED],)
)	DECISION Petitioner.)

This case arises from a timely protest of a State Tax Commission staff decision adjusting the property tax reduction benefit for 2007. This matter was submitted for a decision based on the documents in the file. The State Tax Commission has reviewed the file and makes its decision based on its contents.

All property within the jurisdiction of this state is subject to property tax. A property tax reduction benefit is available to certain qualifying individuals. The benefit is in the form of a payment of the applicant's property tax on the dwelling he/she owns and occupies. The payment is funded by state sales tax. The amount of property tax reduction depends on income--the greater the income, the smaller the benefit.

[Redacted] filed an application for a property tax reduction benefit on March 19, 2007, showing she qualified for a benefit of an amount not to exceed $760. The [Redacted] County Assessor's Office sent that application together with the other applications that had been submitted to the Tax Commission for review and processing.

Income for the property tax reduction benefit purposes is defined in Idaho Code § 63-701 as income received in the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which a claim is filed. The calculation of income starts with federal adjusted gross income and, thereafter, makes certain additions and deductions.

The staff reviewed the petitioner's application and sent her a letter advising her of the intent to change her benefit because she had not included her tax-exempt interest in the application. The petitioner appealed stating she included all of the interest she earned in 2006. She referred to her federal and state income tax returns for proof. However, the interest she described was the taxable interest that had already been included in her federal adjusted gross income. She did not mention the tax-exempt interest. The petitioner's file was transferred to the Legal/Tax Policy Division for administrative review.

Idaho Code § 63-701(5) describes income as:

(5) "Income" means the sum of federal adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, as defined in section 63-3004, Idaho Code, and to the extent not already included in federal adjusted gross income:

(a) Alimony;

(b) Support money;

(c) Nontaxable strike benefits;

(d) The nontaxable amount of any individual retirement account, pension or annuity, (including railroad retirement benefits, all payments received under the federal social security act except the social security death benefit as specified in this subsection, state unemployment insurance laws, and veterans disability pensions and compensation, excluding any return of principal paid by the recipient of an annuity and excluding rollovers as provided in section 402 or 403 of the Internal Revenue Code);

(e) Nontaxable interest received from the federal government or any of its instrumentalities or a state government or any of its instrumentalities;

(f) Worker's compensation; and

(g) The gross amount of loss of earnings insurance.

It does not include gifts from nongovernmental sources or inheritances. To the extent not reimbursed, the cost of medical care as defined in section 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, incurred or paid by the claimant and, if married, the claimant's spouse, may be deducted from income. To the extent not reimbursed, personal funeral expenses, including prepaid funeral expenses and premiums on funeral insurance, of the claimant and claimant's spouse only, may be deducted from income up to an annual maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per claim. "Income" does not include veterans disability pensions received by a person described in subsection (1)(e) who is a claimant or a claimant's spouse if the disability pension is received pursuant to a service-connected disability of a degree of forty percent (40%) or more. "Income" does not include dependency and indemnity compensation or death benefits paid to a person described in subsection (1) of this section by the United States department of veterans affairs and arising from a service-connected death or disability. "Income" does not include lump sum death benefits made by the social security administration pursuant to 42 U.S.C. section 402(i). Documentation of medical expenses may be required by the county assessor, board of equalization and state tax commission in such form as the county assessor, board of equalization or state tax commission shall determine. "Income" shall be that received in the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which a claim is filed. Where a claimant and/or the claimant's spouse does not file a federal tax return, the claimant's and/or the claimant's spouse's federal adjusted gross income, for purposes of this section, shall be an income equivalent to federal adjusted gross income had the claimant and/or the claimant's spouse filed a federal tax return, as determined by the county assessor. The county assessor, board of equalization or state tax commission may require documentation of income in such form as each shall determine, including, but not limited to: copies of federal or state tax returns and any attachments thereto; and income reporting forms such as the W2 and 1099. (Emphasis added.)

Idaho Code § 63-701 uses definitions to describe eligibility and income requirements for an applicant to qualify for the property tax reduction benefit. These definitions are not the same definitions used in other sections of the Idaho Code or even in the common dictionary. However, the definitions are very specific.

The law must be followed as written. If the law is socially or economically unsound, the power to correct it is legislative, not within the powers of the Tax Commission. John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. v. Neill, 79 Idaho 385, 319 P.2d 195 (1957).

The tax-exempt interest the petitioner received in 2006 must be included in her income for the purpose of the property tax reduction benefit. When that interest of $3,405 is added to the income shown in the application the petitioner submitted to [Redacted] County, the petitioner's total income is $22,722. The petitioner qualifies to receive a property tax reduction benefit of an amount not to exceed $520.

The State Tax Commission is aware there is some potential this decision could cause a hardship to the applicant for property tax reduction in certain circumstances. The proper jurisdiction to handle such hardship situations falls with the county commissioners pursuant to Idaho Code § 63-711.

WHEREFORE, the Intent to Change Property Tax Reduction Benefit letter dated October 9, 2007, is APPROVED, AFFIRMED, and MADE FINAL.

An explanation of the petitioner's right to appeal this decision is enclosed with this decision.
