

BEFORE THE TAX COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF IDAHO

In the Matter of the Protest of ) Petitioner. ) DECISION

This case arises from a timely protest of a State Tax Commission staff decision adjusting the property tax reduction benefit for taxable year 2011. This matter was submitted for decision based on the documents in the file. The State Tax Commission has reviewed the file and makes its decision.

[Redacted] (petitioner) filed a property tax reduction benefit application on April 7, 2011. During review of that application and the accompanying copy of the petitioner’s 2010 federal income tax return, the staff noticed that the [Redacted] adjusted gross income on the application did not match that listed on the petitioner’s [Redacted] tax return.

The staff sent the petitioner a letter advising him that his income total for the purpose of the property tax reduction benefit was going to be increased to equal the [Redacted] adjusted gross income reported on his 2010 [Redacted] income tax return. The petitioner protested the intended action that would result in a $260 reduction in the amount of his benefit.

All property within the jurisdiction of this state is subject to property tax. A property tax reduction benefit program is available to certain qualifying individuals throughout the state. The benefit is in the form of payment (either total or partial) of the applicant’s property tax on the dwelling he/she owns and occupies. The payment is funded by state sales tax.

The amount of property tax reduction depends on income--the greater the income, the smaller the benefit. However, income is defined differently for the property tax reduction benefit program than it is described in the income tax code. Income for property tax reduction benefit purposes is defined in Idaho Code § 63-701(5):

- (5) "Income" means the sum of federal adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, as defined in section 63-3004, Idaho Code, and to the extent not already included in federal adjusted gross income:
- (a) Alimony;
  - (b) Support money;
  - (c) Nontaxable strike benefits;
  - (d) The nontaxable amount of any individual retirement account, pension or annuity, (including railroad retirement benefits, all payments received under the federal social security act except the social security death benefit as specified in this subsection, state unemployment insurance laws, and veterans disability pensions and compensation, excluding any return of principal paid by the recipient of an annuity and excluding rollovers as provided in section 402 or 403 of the Internal Revenue Code);
  - (e) Nontaxable interest received from the federal government or any of its instrumentalities or a state government or any of its instrumentalities;
  - (f) Worker's compensation; and
  - (g) The gross amount of loss of earnings insurance.

It does not include gifts from nongovernmental sources or inheritances. To the extent not reimbursed, the cost of medical care as defined in section 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, incurred or paid by the claimant and, if married, the claimant's spouse, may be deducted from income. To the extent not reimbursed, personal funeral expenses, including prepaid funeral expenses and premiums on funeral insurance, of the claimant and claimant's spouse only, may be deducted from income up to an annual maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per claim. "Income" does not include veterans disability pensions received by a person described in subsection (1)(e) who is a claimant or a claimant's spouse if the disability pension is received pursuant to a service-connected disability of a degree of forty percent (40%) or more. "Income" does not include dependency and indemnity compensation or death benefits paid to a person described in subsection (1) of this section by the United States department of veterans affairs and arising from a service-connected death or disability. "Income" does not include lump sum death benefits made by the social security administration pursuant to 42 U.S.C. section 402(i). Documentation of medical expenses may be required by the county assessor, board of equalization and state tax commission in such form as the county assessor, board of equalization or state tax commission shall determine. "Income" shall be that received in the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which a claim is filed. Where a claimant and/or the claimant's spouse does not file a federal tax return, the claimant's and/or the claimant's spouse's federal adjusted gross income, for purposes of this section, shall be an income equivalent to federal adjusted gross income had the claimant and/or the claimant's spouse filed a federal tax return, as determined by the county assessor. The county assessor, board of equalization or state tax commission may require documentation of income in such form as each shall determine, including, but not limited to: copies of federal or state tax returns and any attachments thereto; and income reporting forms such as the W2 and 1099. (Emphasis added.)

The calculation of income starts with [Redacted] adjusted gross income and, thereafter, makes certain additions and deductions. The [Redacted] adjusted gross income amount is taken directly from the petitioner's [Redacted] income tax return.

In the present matter, the petitioner's 2010 [Redacted] adjusted gross income shown on line 21 of his [Redacted] income tax return is $4,000. When social security income of $16,770 for the petitioner, $12,663 for the petitioner's spouse, $69 in interest income is added, and $6,066 of out-of-pocket medical expenses are subtracted, the petitioner's total net 2010 income is $27,436.

The petitioner's 2010 income for the purpose of the property tax reduction benefit is $27,436. The petitioner qualifies to receive a property tax reduction benefit of an amount not to exceed $190.

THEREFORE, the decision of the State Tax Commission staff to change the property tax reduction benefit is AFFIRMED.

An explanation of the taxpayer's right to appeal this decision is enclosed.
