

BEFORE THE TAX COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF IDAHO

In the Matter of the Protest of) Petitioner.) DECISION

On March 12, 2015, the staff of the Tax Discovery Bureau (Bureau) of the Idaho State Tax Commission (Commission) issued a Notice of Deficiency Determination (NODD) to [Redacted] (taxpayer) proposing income taxes, penalties, and interest for taxable years 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012 in the total amount of $2,304.

On April 17, 2015, the taxpayer filed a timely appeal and petition for redetermination. The Commission has made numerous attempts to contact the taxpayer to allow him the opportunity to provide the missing tax returns or additional information. To date, no returns have been received. The Commission having reviewed the file, hereby issues its decision.

When the Bureau could not find any record of the taxpayer's 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012 Idaho individual income tax returns, the taxpayer was sent a letter advising him of the missing returns and asking him for an explanation. The taxpayer did not respond.

The Bureau requested and received income information from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) in accordance with Internal Revenue Code § 6103(d) and Idaho Code § 63-3077. Those records indicated that the taxpayer's income for the years in question exceeded the filing requirements of Idaho Code § 63-3030. Because the taxpayer did not file his state income tax returns, the Bureau prepared provisional returns and issued an NODD. The NODD was based on information obtained from the IRS and records retained by the Commission. The taxpayer protested the Bureau's determination and requested additional time to have a professional preparer help him file the returns. To date, no returns have been received for the aforementioned years.

The Idaho resident individual income tax returns the Bureau prepared on behalf of the taxpayer were based on income information obtained from the taxpayer's federal income records and the records retained by the Commission. The filing status of single was used to determine the taxpayer's Idaho income tax responsibility. The Bureau determined the amount of Idaho income tax due based on federal information.

In Idaho, a State Tax Commission deficiency determination is presumed to be correct, and the burden is on the taxpayer to show that the deficiency is erroneous. Parsons v. Idaho State Tax Commission, 110 Idaho 572, 574-575 n. 2, 716 P.2 d 1344, 1346-1347 n. 2 (Ct. App. 1986). The taxpayer did not meet his burden. It is the taxpayer's responsibility to provide any deductions to offset the Bureau's income figures. United States v. Ballard, 535 F. 2 d 400 (1976). Since the taxpayer failed to meet his burden, the Commission finds the adjusted gross income amount for taxable years 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012, prepared by the Bureau, is a reasonable representation of the taxpayer's Idaho adjusted gross income based upon the information available.

The taxpayer has provided nothing that would dissuade the Commission from accepting the Bureau's determination of Idaho income and Idaho income tax for taxable years 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012. Therefore, the Commission upholds the Bureau's determination of the taxpayer's Idaho taxable income.

The Bureau added interest and penalty to the taxpayer's Idaho tax. The Commission reviewed those additions and found them appropriate and in accordance with Idaho Code §§ 63-3045 and 63-3046, respectively.

THEREFORE, the Notice of Deficiency Determination dated March 12, 2015, and directed to [Redacted], is APPROVED and MADE FINAL.

The taxpayer paid the total due therefore no demand for payment is made or necessary.

An explanation of the taxpayer's right to appeal this decision is enclosed.
