What's New?

- The Food Tax Credit, formerly referenced as the Grocery Credit.
- The Food Tax Credit has been increased to $155 per person.
- If you want to submit copies of receipts for sales tax paid for food (up to $250), please see the instructions for Form 40 or 43.

Who Qualifies to Use This Form

You can use this form if all of these are true:

- You and your spouse were Idaho residents for all of 2025.
- Idaho doesn't require you and your spouse to file an Idaho income tax return.
- If you or your spouse were born before January 2, 1961.

You can't use this form if, for any part of the year, you or your spouse:

- Received assistance under the federal food stamp program.
- Were incarcerated.
- Resided illegally in the United States.
- Had dependents.
- Filed as married filing separately.

If you don't meet the requirements to use Form 24, you can claim the Food Tax Credit on Form 40 or 43.

You can't claim the Food Tax Credit on more than one form.

If you want to submit copies of receipts for sales tax paid for food (up to $250), please see the instructions for Form 40 or 43.

Part B. Refund Claimed

Line 3. Food Tax Credit Donation

You can donate your entire Food Tax Credit to the Cooperative Welfare Fund. It's a trust fund in the state treasury. The state uses all money in the fund for public assistance and welfare purposes.

To donate, check the box on line 3. Also check the $0 box on line 4. You can't change the donation after you make it.

Line 5. Direct Deposit

Complete line 5 if you want us to deposit your refund directly into your bank account instead of mailing you a check.

If your refund is being forwarded from a U.S. financial institution to a financial institution or agency located outside of the United States, check the box on this line. If, after filing this form, you become aware that your electronic refund payment will be electronically deposited in a financial institution or agency located outside of the United States, please notify us at:

Idaho State Tax Commission
PO Box 56
Boise, ID 83756-0056

Contact your bank to make sure that it will accept the deposit and that you have the correct routing and account numbers.

Enter your nine-digit routing number. The routing number must begin with 01 through 12, or 21 through 32.

Enter the account number of the account you want your refund deposited into. The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Don't include hyphens, spaces, or special symbols. Enter the number left to right and leave any unused boxes blank.

Check the appropriate box for account type. Check either checking or savings, but not both.
