Instructions For Idaho Form 55

Idaho Form 55 is used by individuals, corporations, partnerships, estates or trusts that have earned the Idaho credit for qualifying new employees. Each member of a unitary combined group that files a group return must complete a separate Form 55 to compute its earned credit.

A partnership, S corporation, estate or trust must prepare and distribute to each owner or beneficiary a schedule that shows his proportionate share of any pass through of the Idaho credit for qualifying new employees as well as any other applicable credits. A copy of this schedule and the federal Schedule K-1 that is furnished to each owner or beneficiary must be attached to the Idaho partnership, S corporation, or fiduciary income tax return. Each partner, shareholder, member or beneficiary must attach a copy of this schedule to his individual Idaho income tax return.

The maximum credit available is $500 for each qualifying new employee. "New employee" means a person who is subject to Idaho income tax withholding, employed by the taxpayer, and covered for unemployment purposes under Idaho Code. A person shall be considered employed by the taxpayer in a revenue-producing enterprise if the person is employed by the taxpayer on a full-time basis or on a part-time basis if the person works at least 20 hours per week.

No credit will be earned unless the new employee has worked for the taxpayer for a minimum of nine months during the tax year for which the credit is claimed.

Idaho unemployment reports will be the basis for computing the number of employees. However, only employees meeting the definition of "new employee" can be included in the computation of the credit for qualifying new employees. Records must be maintained to support the computation.

The number of qualifying new employees is the excess of the average number of qualifying employees during the tax year over the greater of the average number of qualifying employees during the three preceding tax years or the average number of qualifying employees during the preceding tax year. The number of qualifying new employees must be rounded to the nearest tenth (1/10).

The credit may not exceed 3.25% of the net income of the business.

PART I - CREDIT AVAILABLE SUBJECT TO LIMITATION

Lines 1 and 3. Determine the average number of qualifying employees during the tax year by adding the number of qualifying employees reported for each month on your Idaho unemployment reports and dividing that sum by the number of months of operation during the year.

Line 2. Determine the average number of qualifying employees during the three preceding tax years by dividing the total of the average number of qualifying employees reported for each preceding year by 3.

Line 4. No credit is allowed unless the number on this line equals or exceeds one (1). If it is greater than one (1), the number is rounded to the nearest one-tenth (1/10).

Line 6. The credit is limited to 3.25% of the net income of the Idaho business in which the new employment occurred. Enter the amount of net income from the proprietorship, farm, partnership, fiduciary or corporation income tax return that is from Idaho activities.

Line 8. The earned credit is the smaller of line 5 or line 7.

Line 9. Enter the pass-through share of credit from S corporation, partnership or fiduciary return.

Line 12. For S corporations, partnerships, estates or trusts, enter the credit passing through to the shareholders, partners, members or beneficiaries. Idaho tax credits must pass through to the shareholders, partners, members or beneficiaries in the same manner and to the extent that income or loss passes through.

PART II - CREDIT LIMITATIONS

Any taxpayer earning the Idaho credit for qualifying new employees must complete Part II to determine the limitation on the credit for qualifying new employees and all other nonrefundable credits. The limitation is 50% of the income tax after credit for taxes paid to other states.
