Instructions for Idaho Form CG

General Information

Form CG is used to compute an individual's Idaho capital gains deduction. The deduction is 60% of the capital gain net income included in federal taxable income from the sale of Idaho property. Only capital gains from the following Idaho property qualify:

- (a) Real property held for at least 12 months, or
- (b) Tangible personal property used in a revenue-producing enterprise and held for at least 12 months.
A revenue-producing enterprise means:
 - 1) Producing, assembling, fabricating, manufacturing or processing any agricultural, mineral or manufactured product;
 - 2) Storing, warehousing, distributing or selling at wholesale any products of agriculture, mining or manufacturing;
 - 3) Feeding livestock at a feedlot;
 - 4) Operating laboratories or other facilities for scientific, agricultural, animal husbandry or industrial research, development or testing.
- (c) Cattle and horses held for at least 24 months, and other livestock used for breeding held for at least 12 months, if the owner received more than one-half of his gross income from farming or ranching in Idaho, or
- (d) Timber held for at least 24 months.

NOTE: Gains from the sale of stocks, easements, leasehold real properties, and other intangibles do not qualify.

Refer to the Internal Revenue Code for definitions of capital assets, short-term and long-term capital gains and losses, computations of basis, and gain from disposition of depreciable property.

"Capital gain net income" means the excess of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the losses from such sales or exchanges.

A capital loss carryover from qualifying property reduces the current year gains from eligible property. Losses from property not eligible for this deduction do not reduce gains from eligible property. The Idaho capital gains deduction cannot exceed the capital gain net income reported on the federal return. Gains treated as ordinary income do not qualify for the deduction.

Distributive Share of Gain or Loss From S Corporations, Partnerships, Trusts and Estates

Capital gain from qualifying property, described above, held by S corporations, partnerships, trusts and estates, is eligible for the Idaho capital gains deduction.

The amount of gain or loss must be computed by the S corporation, partnership, trust or estate and provided to the pass-through owner on Form ID K-1, Part B, line 9. The deduction is claimed on the return of the individual shareholder, partner or beneficiary. The partnership, S corporation, trust or estate must provide supplemental information to the partners, shareholders or beneficiaries with Form ID K-1 identifying the type of property sold, the date of sale, and the holding period of the property by the partnership, S corporation, trust, or estate.

Specific Instructions

Line 1. List qualifying capital gains and losses. Do not include gains and losses reported on lines 2 through 5.

- Column b Identify the month, day, and year the property was acquired.
- Column c Identify the month, day, and year the property was sold.

- Column f Compute your gain or loss by subtracting your basis (column e) from the sales price (column d).

Line 2. Enter the taxable gain from the sale of your Idaho home, from federal Schedule D. If you are reporting a gain that qualifies from previous installment sales, see line 3.

Line 3. If you used federal Form 6252 to report the installment method for the gain on the sale of eligible property on your federal return, compute your capital gains deduction using the current year's taxable portion of the installment payment. Include federal Form 6252. Capital gain from an installment sale is not eligible for the Idaho capital gains deduction if the property was not held for the minimum holding period by the date sold.

Line 4. Enter the eligible capital gain net income from federal Form 4797. Do not include ordinary gains reported on federal Form 4797, Part II.
