Interstate Commerce Exemption

(Idaho Code Section 63-3622R and Idaho Sales and Use Tax Administrative Rule 101)

A buyer can claim an exemption from Idaho sales tax on the lease or purchase of a motor vehicle, trailer, or glider kit that will be used to assemble a glider kit vehicle, used in interstate commerce when the following requirements are met and maintained:

- The motor vehicle or trailer will be immediately registered under the International Registration Plan (IRP) with a maximum gross registration weight of more than 26,000 pounds, and
- At least 10% of the purchaser's total fleet mileage during any reporting period will be outside of Idaho.

You can have more than one IRP fleet. A fleet can consist of one or more vehicles. Each fleet is evaluated to determine if it meets the mileage requirement. The purchase of repair parts, supplies and other goods don't qualify for this exemption and are subject to tax.

I'm purchasing a:

1. This motor vehicle will be immediately registered with a maximum gross weight of more than 26,000 pounds under the IRP, and
 2. This motor vehicle will be part of a registered fleet which will operate _____% of its miles outside of Idaho, and
 3. I understand if the fleet no longer meets the requirements of the exemption, I must pay use tax to the Tax Commission on the fair market value of the fleet as of the last day of the reporting period.
- Trailer
1. This on-highway trailer will immediately become part of a fleet of vehicles registered under the IRP, and
 2. This fleet will operate _____% of its miles outside of Idaho, and
 3. I understand if the fleet no longer meets the requirements of the exemption, I must pay use tax to the Tax Commission on the fair market value of the fleet as of the last day of the reporting period.
- Glider Kit
1. This glider kit will be used to assemble a qualifying glider kit vehicle that will immediately become part of a fleet of vehicles registered under the IRPlan, and
 2. This fleet will operate _____% of its miles outside of Idaho, and
 3. I understand if the fleet no longer meets the requirements of the exemption, I must pay use tax to the Tax Commission on the fair market value of the fleet as of the last day of the reporting period.
