

Events, Parties and Taxes

Are you charging your customers correctly?

Whether you plan whole events or just rent out bounce houses, you need to charge customers tax on the equipment and services you provide. But are you charging them correctly? Find out at this free training from the Idaho State Tax Commission.

★ This training is perfect for professionals such as:

- Party planners
- DJs for private events
- Providers for kids' parties
- Companies that rent inflatables, climbing walls or other party equipment

★ Anyone offering services or equipment for parties and events in Idaho ★

Space is limited; register today at tax.idaho.gov/register

★ In this free two-hour seminar, you'll learn:

- How to charge customers the right amount of sales tax
- How to avoid a big bill for sales tax you didn't know you owed
- Services and items you must charge sales tax on
- Equipment, repair parts and supplies you have to pay tax on
- Navigating tricky situations like donations
- Locating information resources and more

A Tax Commission expert will teach you what you need to know in a way that's easy to understand.
Bring your questions!

Tuesday, March 19, 10 a.m. to noon

Boise: Tax Commission offices, 800 E. Park Blvd.